

THE WATERFRONT REPORT

The Waterfront Report is a newsletter-style update about the activities of the Sullivans Cove Waterfront Authority and Sullivans Cove Design Panel. It is published on a regular basis in the Mercury newspaper.

The Waterfront Report typically contains:

- » Activity updates about the Authority and Design Panel
- » Major project announcements
- » Key appointments
- » Calendar of events
- » Opportunities for consultation
- » Upcoming tenders and consultancies.

Who should read The Waterfront Report?

Anyone with an interest in the activities of the Authority and Design Panel, as well as all those with an interest in the future of Sullivans Cove as a working port, cultural hub and entertainment precinct.

How often is The Waterfront Report published?

The Waterfront Report appears a minimum of six times a year in the Saturday edition of the Mercury – the highest circulation day of Tasmania's leading newspaper.

What if I miss an edition of The Waterfront Report?

All editions of The Waterfront Report can be downloaded from our website at www.waterfront.tas.gov.au

For more information

- » Phone us on 03 6216 4288
- » Send an email to info@waterfront.tas.gov.au
- » Visit our website at www.waterfront.tas.gov.au
- » Drop in and see us at 5 Franklin Wharf, Hobart, Tasmania.

First published: 13 December 2007.

Last update: 13 December 2007.

Thank you for sharing our interest in Sullivans Cove.